The Every Member Canvass of the First Congregational church continues and the goal had been more than half reached up to Sunday. It is expected that when the canvass has been completed, many church members who spent the winter in the south the quotas will be reached as in past years. The budget for the church budget and $1,500 for missions. The money received up to Monday was $5,993 in cash and pledges for the church budget and $1,931.10 in cash and pledges for the missionary work. Canvassers will continue to work among the congregation not yet solicited from.

Friends of Al Kroop, who formerly coached for the American Football Association and made good with local fans have heard that Al is making good with the Detroit Tigers and Manager Ty Cobb likes his work. Al recently pitched an exhibition game against the Augusta outfit and won by a comfortable margin. Lack of big league experience, however may keep Kroop out of the big leagues this season and in the event the Cobb lets him out it is likely that Kroop will go to the Augusta club of the South Atlantic League, a club of which Cobb is a stockholder. Local fans would like to see Al start in with the big leagues but if he makes a start with the minors this year he will probably be in line next season for the big show.
